

2016 AWARDS — FINALISTS —

Stockbroking Category: Emerging women owned company in the FS sector

AFRICA COLLECTIVE INVESTMENTS

Africa Collective Investments (ACI) is a collective investment schemes management company, established by two of South Africa's leading independent financial services companies to become a leading provider of CIS portfolios to South African asset management companies. With R126 million worth of capital under its management, ACI aims to promote financial inclusivity and enablement through distribution.

HEDGE FUND ACADEMY

Hedge Fund Academy is an advisory and training company that works towards addressing the Financial Markets through the sharing of intellectual capital. Through an extensive portfolio of programmes, the Hedge Fund Academy offers both regulatory and career enhancing qualifications and learnerships. Since it was founded in 2011 by Marilyn Ramplin, the in-house and bespoke training courses have been attended by over 300 attendees from JSE listed companies, asset managers, fund managers, regulatory bodies and the major South African banking groups.

Asset Management Category: Traditional Asset Manager

FAYYAZ MOTTIAR, ABSA

Fayyaz has been with ABSA Asset Management for the last five years running listed property investments. Prior to that he worked in Property Private Equity at ABSA, where he gained broad exposure to the direct property market. Fayyaz is an award winning fund manager with close to two decades of financial market experience. He holds a Bachelor of Economic Science degree from the University of the Witwatersrand and CFA charter from the CFA institute.

VICTOR MPHAPHULI, STANLIB

Victor co-heads the STANLIB Fixed Income business, with 20 years of experience in the industry. Mphaphuli began his financial services career as a trainee foreign currency dealer with Standard Bank's Treasury Division in 1996. After gaining experience as a bond market dealer with Nedbank Investment Bank, he later joined the STANLIB's forerunner Liberty Asset Management Group in 2001, and is now part of the STANLIB's Executive Committee which provides strategic direction to the business.